"What profit would there be for one to gain the whole world and forfeit his life? Or what can one give in exchange for his life? For the Son of Man will come with his angels in his Father's glory, and then he will repay all according to his conduct." - Mt 16:26-27

22ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"What profit would there be for one to gain the whole world and forfeit his life?" Profit and gain. Most of us would be happy to experience these things. In our capitalist economy, profit is the point. Gain is the goal. Thought of in terms of money or possessions, having plenty of them often offers us a sense of security and sometimes a kind of pleasure. But today Jesus warns us about putting too much stock in this kind of worldly security.

It's important to recognize that Jesus isn't condemning money or possessions in and of themselves. But he is advocating a radical rethinking of our priorities. In a way, he turns everything upside down. Instead of giving us tips to "gain the whole world," Jesus instructs us to take up our cross and follow him, and to lose our life for his sake. This is not a message about gain but about loss. At least, that's how it appears on the surface. When we take up our cross--embracing the sacrifices that come with our vocation, or accepting the sufferings that inevitably cross our path--it may not gain us immediate relief, but it will unite us to Christ who suffered for us on the cross. When we lose our life for his sake--giving of our time, our talents, and our treasure for the sake of those we love or those in need--it may not fill our pocketbooks, but it will fill our hearts.

Jesus wants our lives to be full. Full of love, full of peace, full of joy. Today he reminds us to be sure we aren't so full of other "stuff" that we have no room left for what truly satisfies. Jesus promises that in losing our life for his sake, we will find it in the end. May we have the confidence to put our trust in this promise.

A pious and learned man, Gregory preferred the monastic life. He managed to found and endow several monasteries before he was drawn into ecclesiastical politics. As pope, he sponsored evangelist missions, centralized the papacy's administrative machinery and fought corruption and negligence. He did a great deal for the poor and the sick, for refugees from Lombard invaders and plague victims. Gregory had a powerful influence on the formation of the early papacy, drawing on The City of God by Augustine of Hippo for his theological foundation. He was able to consolidate the lands controlled by the papacy into what would later be known as "the Papal States." Gregory is buried in St. Peter's Basilica, Rome.

How to behave in a church?

A church is a place of worship, where people come to pray, meet Christ and build community around Him. We remind you of some rules that bind us in the house of God which respect and show reverence to these sacred places in our parish.

- Please come to the liturgy punctually. Closed bridges, detours, etc. can surprise you only the first time. Future lateness is caused mostly by laziness.
- Turn off your cell phone. Always! And don't answer any calls. Your family and friends can wait for you. Holy Mass is more important – twenty years ago no one could call you during the liturgy and everything was OK.
- Please do not talk before the liturgy. You disturb others. Rather think about the liturgy and try to open your heart to peace and silence. We can hear Gods voice only in silence.
- If you have to leave for a short time for any reason, please, re-enter at the appropriate time and try not to disturb others.
- Don't leave until a final hymn concludes.
- As you leave after the liturgy don't talk in the church. You disturb those who stay for prayer and adoration.
- Please, do not chew any gum in the church. An appropriate place for dental hygiene is at your home. And please don't stick chewed gum under pews!
- A church isn't a beach or a gym. Please dress appropriately to the solemnity of the place. Teach children to do the same.
- If your child cries for a very long time and you can't stop him or her, you can always use our cry room.

Jak zachowywać się w kościele?

Kościół jest miejscem kultu, gdzie ludzie przychodzą, by modlić się, spotkać Chrystusa i budować wspólnotę wokół Niego. Przypominamy kilka reguł, które obowiązują w domu Bożym, aby został zachowany szacunek do tych świętych miejsc w naszej parafii.

- Prosimy, przyjdź punktualnie na nabożeństwo. Zamknięte mosty, objazdy, itd. Mogą zaskoczyć tylko za pierwszym razem. Następne spóźnienia są spowodowane najczęściej przez lenistwo.
- Wyłącz telefon komórkowy. Zawsze! I nie odbieraj jakichkolwiek rozmów. Twoja rodzina i przyjaciele mogą zakażać na Ciebie, Msza św. jest ważniejsza – 20 lat temu nikt nie mógł się dodzwonić do Ciebie w czasie liturgii i wszystko było dobrze.
- Nie rozmawiaj przed Mszą św. Przeszkadzasz innym. Pomyśl raczej o liturgii i spróbuj otworzyć swe serce na pokój i ciszę. Boga można usłyszeć jedynie w ciszy.
- Jeśli musisz na krótko wyjść, to wracając uczyni to odpowiednim czasie i nie przeszkadzaj pozostałym.
- Nie wychodź zanim nie skończy się pieśń na zakończenie.
- Opuszczając kościół nie rozmawiaj. Przeszkadzasz tym, którzy zostają na modlitwę dziękczynienia i adoracji.
- Prosimy, nie żuj gumy w kościele. Miejscem odpowiednim na higienę ust jest twój dom lub samochód. Nie przyklejaj gumy pod siedzeniami!
- Kościół nie jest plażą ani salą gimnastyczną. Prosimy, ubieraj się stosownie do powagi miejsca. Ucz dzieci tego samego.
- Jeśli two dziecko długo płacze nie można go uspokoić, to zawsze można udać się do pokoju dla rodziców z dziećmi.

"What profit would there be for one to gain the whole world and forfeit his life?" - Matthew 16:26

St. Francis of Assisi once said, "Remember, you are what you are in the eyes of God, and nothing else." We often forget this stewardship wisdom when we spend all of our time, talent and treasure to gain more of the world's riches. We need to set our priorities based on God's values and not the values of the material world.

The next Knights of Columbus #6573 Bible Study will be on "The Acts of the Apostles". This fifteen week program will go over the early period of our Church.

"Another reason that Acts is timely today is that the cultural context in which the Church finds herself is in some ways more like that of the first-century Church than it has been at any time since. Vast numbers of people in contemporary society are ignorant of Christ and of the biblical worldview. Many are living a pagan, hedonistic lifestyle—not unlike the Gentiles whom Paul encountered in his missionary journeys throughout the Roman Empire. Social patterns often run counter to basic values such as the dignity of the person, the sanctity of life, or the Christian vision of marriage, sexuality, and family. Christians often find themselves subject to state pressure to conform to a secular agenda, and publicly witnessing to Christ sometimes provokes mockery, hostility, or even persecution." from the introduction by William S. Kurz, SJ

The cost is $25 to cover the cost of the book, video, etc., and should be paid by September 1. Checks can be made out to "KofC #6573", and placed in the basket or dropped off at the office. It will start September 11th at 7pm at the John Neumann Center in the Sacred Heart parking lot.
