"There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish; but what good are these for so many?" Then Jesus took the loaves, gave thanks, and distributed them to those who were reclining, and also as much of the fish as they wanted.

- Jn 6:9, 11

17th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"A large crowd followed him, because they saw the signs he was performing on the sick." Jesus was attracting attention because of the miracles he had been working. Word spread, and people wanted to see it for themselves. In today's Gospel, a huge crowd--five thousand men--gathered to see if Jesus was really a miracle worker. And he didn't let them down. This time, instead of performing a miraculous healing for someone who was sick, Jesus performed a miracle that helped everyone who was there. He fed them all, out of the tiniest bit of food: five barley loaves and two fish. And with twelve baskets of leftovers to boot!

In case any of them had been in doubt before, this sign made it clear. Jesus was the Messiah. The people said, "This is truly the Prophet, the one who is to come into the world." Each person in attendance had a personal experience of the power and providence of the Lord that day when they ate their fill. Jesus not only met their needs, but he went above and beyond this by multiplying the loaves and fishes in such abundance. It was as if he was saying, "I want you to have what you need and more. And I have the power to provide it for you."

This miracle-working, food-producing, need-meeting Jesus is the same Jesus that we believe in. This is the same man that we call our savior. This is the Lord we pray to and the One to whom we entrust our lives. This ancient Gospel story is not irrelevant to our lives; it is also part of our story, here, today. Jesus can also provide for us. He has the power, and the desire, to give us all that we need and even more. He wants to feed us, too, with a satisfied and abundant life, a life of lasting fulfillment.

THE PARISH OFFICE WILL BE CLOSED THE ENTIRE WEEK OF THE SUMMER FESTIVAL. EMERGENCIES, I.E., SICK CALLS, FUNERAL ARRANGEMENTS, WILL BE, OF COURSE, HANDLED SHOULD THEY OCCUR.

Brush Brush Brush: Last week at Christ the Redeemer Summer Program children learned the importance of brushing, flossing, and taking care of their teeth. A big thank you to Dawn Digrazia for giving a great presentation and leading the kids in a discussion regarding their teeth. Awesome visuals were used for a better understanding and the kids really enjoyed it.

We All Need a Hero: We took a trip to the State Theater in New Brunswick to see the movie "Big Hero 6". The kids enjoyed this action-packed comedy-adventure about the special bond that develops between Baymax, a plus-sized inflatable robot, and prodigy boy. The State Theater is providing FREE movies this summer. Check out the schedule at <http://www.statetheatrenj.org/>.

"There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish; but what good are these for so many?" (JOHN 6:9)

The miracle of the Loaves and Fishes is the only miracle which is recorded six times in the Gospel. It carries two important messages. First, no matter how little we have, we always have enough to share. Second, Christ can take our humble gifts and do great things with them if we are just willing to let Him.
