Someone in the crowd said to Jesus, "Teacher, tell my brother to share the inheritance with me." He replied to him, "Friend, who appointed me as your judge and arbitrator?" Then he said to the crowd, "Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich, one's life does not consist of possessions." - Lk 12:13-15

18TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich, one's life does not consist of possessions." This isn't a message that gets much advertising. On the contrary, just about every advertised message we hear comes from someone who wants to make money by selling us possessions. The message we hear loud and clear on television or Internet ads or on highway billboards or the back cover of magazines is that we need this product or that service in order to be happy. Professional marketers are in the business of creating a supposed need and then promising to fill it with their product. In today's culture, it's hard to remember that life isn't about possessions.

But in this Gospel, Jesus reminds us that there is more to life than having "so many good things stored up for many years." All of this stuff-be it clothes, devices, equipment, decorations, entertainment centers, or anything else-does no lasting good if and when "this night your life will be demanded of you." Unlike the fool who spends all of his time, energy, and money building larger barns, we should focus our resources on becoming "rich in what matters to God."

This means cultivating virtue instead of vice. It means sharing our money with those in need instead of hoarding it out of selfish greed. The call is a challenging one, and countercultural too. But Jesus never said that the Christian way was the way of the world. As St. Paul instructs us in today's epistle, "Put to death, then, the parts of you that are earthly." Instead of falling for the marketers' messages, may we have the wisdom to store up our treasure in heaven.

CHRIST THE REDEEMER PARISH SUMMER FESTIVAL IS NOW HISTORY

For some time to come, we will be involved in the tabulating of receipts and expenditures; but in the meantime we hasten to extend our deep respect, admiration and gratitude to the many men, women, and children whose sacrifices of time and energy made the 48th Annual Parish Summer Festival such a tremendous success. Without the effort of so many, we would not have been able to manage this undertaking. We are, most of all, grateful to Almighty God for the good week He blessed us with and to all our parishioners and friends who added to its success by their attendance. MAY GOD BLESS YOU A HUNDREDFOLD!

Wielkie słowa podziękowania kierujemy na ręce tych wszystkich parafian, którzy czynnie włączyli się w przygotowanie i prowadzenie naszego karnawału. W sposób szczególny dziękuję Panom, którzy tak chętnie i LICZNIE wstawili się do rozkładania stołów i krzeseł. Dziękuję Paniom i Panom pracującym podczas festiwalu za poświęcenie, dobre słowo i optymizm. Oprócz ciężkiej pracy wszyscy bawili się dobrze i pracowali dzielnie razem. Ciszę się, że tak wielu młodych parafian włączyło się w tym roku w przygotowanie i przeprowadzenie naszego festiwalu. Dziękuję Panu Bogu za dobry tydzień oraz wszystkim tym, którzy nawiedzili nas w czasie tego parafialnego święta. Bóg Zapłać za wszelką okazaną dobroć.

Thank you to all the wonderful volunteers who helped out at this year's festival.

"Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich, one's life does not consist of possessions."

Luke 12:15

The Gospel message today is so contrary to our modern culture where advertising continually tries to convince us that our value lies in the things we possess. Jesus showed us that our true value lies in the way we live our lives. He challenges us to not store up or hoard material possessions, but rather to live a grateful and generous lifestyle.
